Learning Support Program

Marist's Office of Accommodations and Accessibility offers its Learning Support Program to students who meet eligibility requirements. To apply for this program, in addition to submitting your application to Marist, you must also submit a separate application directly to the Office of Accommodations and Accessibility. The Learning Support application and eligibility requirements are available at <https://www.marist.edu/accommodations-accessibility/prospect-lis-admission.html>. (How you respond to the following question will not be considered for general admission purposes into Marist's undergraduate program).

- ☐ Yes, I would like to apply for the Learning Support Program and will complete and submit the required, separate application
- ☐ No, I do not plan to apply for the Learning Support Program

Arthur O. Eve Higher Education Opportunity Program

This program is for New York State residents only.

The Arthur O. Eve Higher Education Opportunity Program (HEOP) is a division of Student Academic Affairs. HEOP is a comprehensive academic support program designed to assist students who otherwise might not be able to attend college due to educational and financial circumstances. Students must meet the income guidelines established by the Board of Regents. HEOP students receive a broad range of innovative services, including academic, personal and career counseling, individual and small group tutoring, leadership training and student development workshops. To apply for this program, a separate Higher Education Opportunity Program (HEOP) application is required and available at www.marist.edu/academics/multicultural/heop/apply.html.

- ☐ Yes, I would like to apply for the HEOP program and will submit the required supplement.
- ☐ No, I do not plan to apply for the HEOP program.
