

Marist College Code of Conduct

Marist College is committed to the highest standards of professional conduct. We are dedicated to providing outstanding service to our students and families. We recognize that borrowing for college is a significant investment. The staff is expected to always maintain exemplary standards of professional conduct in all aspects of carrying out responsibilities as financial aid professionals

Marist College will process a loan through any lender a student or family chooses. Marist College does offer a suggested lender list for students and parents. However, we do not recommend or assign lenders to any students or families. To help students and families evaluate their lender options, Marist utilizes ELM Select, a website that provides comparative information
